Milk & Krunchies

If you're a bit short on cash (and who isn't in this economy?) you can send Mom a nostalgic treat from Milk & Krunchies.

Remember those sticky crispy rice treats made with marshmallows and rice cereal that Mom packed in your school lunchbox way back when? Now you can return the favor by sending Mom a gourmet version of the treat from Milk & Krunchies. It comes in a chocolate brown gift box embellished with a pretty yellow polka dot band.

You can choose from an assortment of crispy treat flavors. Starting at just $8, they won't break the bank. To learn more you can visit www.milkandkrunchies.com.
